
Title: VIRTUES of KNIGHTHOOD

Author: MacBeadan OAG

JUSTICE:

A knight must always
seek the path of truth and right. Temper the sword of justice with humanity and mercy.

LOYALTY:

A knight is known
known for his unwavering commitment to his friends and family
and his beliefs.

DEFENSE:

A knight must always
defend his Nation,
Family, and those he is loyal to, or has sworn loyalty to.

COURAGE:

A knight must never shrink from personal sacrifice in service to those he considers himself loyal to, or
has sworn an oath of loyalty.

FAITH:

A knight must have firm resolve in these virtues and all ideals
which are held dear,
so as to bolster the
spirit in time of need.

HUMILITY:

A knight must speak
of the valorous deeds
and accomplishments
of others. Never Boast
of your own works.

LARGESSE:

Be merciful and
generous in all manners
to those you are loyal

to, or have sworn an oath of loyalty to.

NOBILITY:

A knight must seek great stature of character amongst his peers, by upholding these virtues. The mark of nobility is perceived by others.

HONOR:

Show the utmost respect to all that you are loyal to, or have sworn loyalty to. Respect those that are beneath, or above you in station.

FRANCHISE:

With sincerity and within reason uphold these virtues in all aspects of your life. Be remembered for your virtuous character.

THE KNIGHTS CODE:

* My Honor is my life.

* I shall uphold the virtues of knighthood in word and deed.

* I shall lend aid to those who require it.

* I swear loyalty, and shall do naught but honor to the Order and my peers.

* I shall conduct myself with reason and responsibility

REGARDING GRIFFONS

The Griffon is a fantastic beast that has the head and torso of an eagle and the hind quarters of a lion. The griffon symbolizes strength and intelligence.

